

DEPARTMENT OF THE ARMY
OFFICE OF THE ASSISTANT CHIEF OF STAFF FOR INTELLIGENCE
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20310

DAMI-FIR

1 MAR 1976

Lieutenant General E. F. Tighe, Jr., USAF
Acting Director
Defense Intelligence Agency
Washington, DC 20301

Dear General Tighe:

In response to your letter of 17 February, I agree that it is in the best interest of the Army to provide representation on the Strategic Warning Staff. Our only constraints are resources. While there is no scarcity within Army of qualified analysts who could perform the task, I find that officer spaces currently available for allocation are at a premium.

Action has been taken to procure an additional space for this requirement. A reply is due to me by mid-March, and I hope to be able to comply with your request shortly thereafter.

HAROLD R. AARON
Major General, GS
